Minutes of Nov 17th, 2011 – Community Center

In Attendance Kevin Lee, Dick Kuehn, LaNell Schlosser, Louise Cook, Curt Lind, Dwight & Diane Droen, Pastor Larry Paulson, Gen Olson & Marcia Luedeke.

Meeting called to order by Kevin at 7:00 – Minutes were available and approved.

Treasurers report- Halloween Party had a good turnout- We used all the left over prizes from the Tornado Days and gave away $55.00 worth of Ice Cream Certificates. LaNell turned in $137.40 from Farmers market. Motion was made and seconded to approve report.

Motion was made & seconded to keep the hot dog,& drink at $1.00. Leave out the cookie.

Suggestion was made to seek out the area businesses for donations.

Curt Lind brought up the idea of to have donation items for the food shelf at one of our events.

Louise mentioned that we need to recruit more help for the Halloween party.

Biscuits, Gravy & Scrambled Eggs : Sunday, November 20th, 8:00-Noon. Set up 6:30 a.m.

Some of the helpers were working already a little after 6 a.m. We planed for 200 people.

The attendance was very low, like 60-70 only showed up. The helpers purchased some of the abundance. Whatever could be returned was. We could use the gravy not open, for our February event. Gen reported that we should check with Alice Ritter at “The Cozy Cup” in Parkers, as she might be able to give us a good deal.

Suggestion: to raise the price on the Biscuits/Gravy to $7.00.

Gen Olson volunteered to donate 3 prong extension cords.

Louise brought up the possibility of finding someone to do our posters, as the ink cartridges are very costly.

NOV 6th Boy Scouts had their Pancake, fund raiser.

Christmas:Jenny Melby will be having a Christmas Craft show at the Center on Friday, December 2, from 5-9 p.m. and $15.00 a spot. She already has 16 vendors signed up.

December 10—Santa Claus Day, 2-5:00 p.m. at the Community Ctr.

Kurt reported that he and Clem will start working on the 2012 Tornado Buttons about January.

Suggestion: Have down town Vendors pay for their spot, like the other crafters have to pay, LaNell & Marcia reported that the prices ranged from $10.00-$50.00 a spot.

Clem brought up the idea of possibly closing off the street from the Lumber Yard to the Fire Hall during Tornado Days, so more games and things could be offered on the street. Kevin would check with the grocery store and lumber yard if they would be ok with that.

Kevin reported the Zoomba and Art appreciation classes at the Community Ctr . Also if anybody would want to walk during the winter months, the Center would be open. Louise brought up the possibility of holding card or bridge games at the center for a free donation. There would have to be an organizer for this.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 a.m. Respectfully submitted, Marcia Luedeke

NEXT MEETING: THURSDAY, DEC. 15th, 2011-7:00 a.m. Community Ctr.

LaNell Schlosser will bring the snacks for Thursday..
